Relieve the Eighth Battalion and Thirteenth Regiment.

"Baptized by Fire" seemed a very appropriate motto for the "Fighting Fourteenth" Regiment of Brooklyn, as it marched out of its armory on North Portland avenue, at 11 o'clock this morning into the blazing rays of the sun, en route for the State Camp at Peckskill.

Col. Harry W. Michell was in command of the 650 men who will spend the coming week on Peekskill's plains.

Last night the armory was a busy place. The company quarters were filled with men getting things in shape for the start to-day.

Early this morning the men worked hard filling the big vans with chests, trunks, boxes and the like, which will provide romfort to the soldier boys while away from home. One refrigerator looked cool and smiling among the big stock of merchandise with which the main corridor of the armory was silled.

That question was not touched upon."

Shortly afterward a notice was sent out over the police wires calling attention to the following general order issued to Supt. Campbell July 10:

"You will direct the captains of the several precincts to have the law in regard to selling ilyour to minors strictly enforced. You will order them to instruct the officers of their command to be watchful and diligent in regard to the salm of a confidence of a violation comming to their natice to promptly arrest the person committing the officers.

"When minors are seen departing from salons with vessels containing beer or other liquor, and if the evidence is not sufficient to make an arrest at the time. He cofficer will report to his captain the name of the solon-keeper making the sale. The captain will immediately forward the report to this office.

"A failure on the part of the police officers to enforce this order will result in charges being made against them for neglect of duty. Respectfully.

To-day's action by Mr. Welles was the outcome of a conference held at the City Hall yesterday between May
